WINTER-TIME FUN - Youngsters attending the Free Church Co-Operative Pre-School have a daily outdoor recreation period. And have they been having fun! Big piles of snow, scooped out of the parking lot, provide excellent sliding. And the lot itself has frozen over enough to allow some skating. The School has a couple of vacancies, and interested parents may contact the school for information. (Staff Photo)

$1,600,000 Budget Adopted For Schools

PAPERS MUST BE FILED BY 5 P.M. JAN. 29

To clear up any misunderstanding, all candidates for public office must file their nomination papers at the town clerk's office by 5 p.m. Jan. 29.

The papers filed by that time go to the Board of Registrars for certification of signatures. The Registrars must then file the papers with the town clerk by 4:30 p.m. Feb. 5.

The School Committee has adopted a 1962 budget of $1,613,460 - greater than last year by $151,174.

The bulk of this increase comes in salaries - boosted by $128,000. Increases in the department's expenses amount to $23,000 over the appropriations of a year ago.

Although the town will appropriate the total budget, the School Committee has emphasized that $210,671.19 will be returned to the town by the state. The money goes into the free cash account when it is received, and is not applicable to the school department budget directly.

Normal increments, plus the new salary schedule adopted by the Committee in recent weeks, accounts for most of the increase in

Corruption Is His Topic

Residents of Andover will have an unusual opportunity next Tuesday evening to get the inside story on alleged corruption in Massachusetts.

Elliot L. Richardson, the United States Attorney who prosecuted and obtained a conviction in the Bernard Goldfine case and who prosecuted the Thomas Worcester case, will speak at the Central Elementary School Auditorium on political corruption in Massachusetts.

He is the featured speaker at the annual open meeting of the Andover Taxpayers Association. He will be heard at the beginning

Still Debating Movies Decision

The School Committee still can't make up its mind whether the Cinema Classics group can use the school facilities for their foreign films.

Instead, the Committee put off a decision for two weeks, but will hear all sides of the debate Jan. 23.

The problem revolves around the complaint of Samuel Resnik, owner of the Andover Playhouse, that the films are in direct competition with the theatre, and the use of a school facility provides unfair competition.

A series of films was shown before the end of the year, using the Memorial Auditorium. Attendance

The Selectmen are preparing to recommend many street acceptances to the town meeting for favorable action.

The streets, all of which are old, familiar ways in the town, have never been properly acted upon at a town meeting. But they have been in use for many years - some for over half a century - and have been maintained by the town.

By vote of the Board, Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien is drawing up an article, naming the streets and describing them by width and length, and location.

By voting to accept the streets, the voters will be clearing the way

DOHERTY SUGGESTS USE FOR OLD COUCHES

School Committeeman William A. Doherty may have solved the question of what to do with three old couches used in the schools' health offices.

At about the mid-point of Tuesday night's meeting, Mr. Doherty wondered if they couldn't be brought to the Committee rooms, so that members could work in shifts.

The meeting finally adjourned at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday morning - but without couches.

STUDYING ATMOSPHERE - Project "Skyhook" is underway at the Junior High, with the eventual aim of putting a gas-filled balloon into the air and recording various data. Engaged in the project are David West, William Westaway, Charles Galley, Warren Naylor, Robert Johnston, James Grillo, Larry Mazel and Dennis Ledbetter. Seated is Robert Bachmann, faculty advisor and director of the project.

Operation Skyhook Is Underway At Jr. High

It's full speed ahead at Andover Junior High School on project "Skyhook".

This is the joint effort by members of the eighth and ninth grade science students to raise a gas filled balloon to study changes in air pressure, radiation, and temperature in the upper atmosphere. Students are divided into a number of groups, each one seeking to overcome a particular problem associated with the project.

Teams are engaged in such phases as attaching a meteorology unit (weather instruments), a radio transmitter for tracking the balloon, a biology unit for study of altitude on living specimens and radio recording instruments. A unique phase of project "Skyhook", under the direction of Robert Bachmann, will be the tracking of the progress of the balloon through the atmosphere by radio and telescopic equipment.

The individual teams of students will meet weekly and conduct their individual research phases to completion. Then, at some later date, the various teams will put forth their joint efforts to raise the instrument-laden balloon into the sky.

This effort on the part of the student body will serve to emphasize the value of cooperative effort in science while increasing basic research skills.

RECITAL AT ABBOT ACADEMY

Show Down On Rogers Brook

Rogers Brook is headed for show-down at town meeting.

The voters will get a chance to decide whether to appropriate about $200,000 for the section from the river to Main st., or whether to rescind their former action and forget the job for a while.

The alternatives will be presented in special articles according to a vote of the Selectmen.

It presently is estimated that one section of the brook, from the river to Main st., will cost $367,750. Based on the promise that the state will pay half this amount, the Selectmen decided to ask the voters for a new appropriation covering the town's half, plus a little more for contingencies. Allowance must also be made for the cost of easements.

The Board seemed agreed that it will recommend doing the section of the project, with an understanding that additional sections must be done in the next few years - either by the town alone or in partnership with the state.

However, a majority of the Board also agreed that if the voters don't want to do this, they should have available the opportunity to rescind the $195,000 appropriated in other years. This still is listed on the town's bonded indebtedness although the money has not been spent.

The section of the brook under consideration must be done first according to the engineers. Although the state's consulting engineers estimated the cost at $250,000, Camp, Dresser and McKee have estimated the cost at the greater amount. It is also estimated that the next section will cost at least $262,500 - although this is the estimate by the state and might be higher, based on the increases in costs for the first section.

SPONSORING THE CEYLON DANCERS

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stevens of Andover are among the sponsors of The National Dancers of Ceylon, who will appear at M.I.T.'s Kresge Auditorium Friday, Jan. 26, to benefit the Experiment in International Living.

Special Program Coming At P.A.

Beginning in the summer of 1962 Phillips Academy will participate in a program of Chinese Language, History, and Culture offered by the Institute of Asian Studies for Preparatory Students.

The Institute, made possible by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, is at Thayer Academy, Braintree, Mass. The program is open to students in the Merrimack Valley area. Applications are restricted to students who will have completed their third or Junior year of high school in June of this year.

The program is divided into two sessions: Session I - from June 18 to Aug. 24, 1962 - will be held at Thayer Academy; Session II - from September, 1962, to June 1963 - will be held at Phillips Academy.

Session I will offer an intensive 10-week course in language and cultural studies; Session II, lasting for approximately 30 weeks, will offer two late afternoon meetings a week of continued language study. Tuition for both sessions is $200. Board and Room for those unable to commute to Thayer Academy is $700.

Applicants who believe themselves qualified, but find the cost prohibitive are encouraged to apply, as the Institute offers a number of scholarships to both day and boarding students.

Students who successfully complete both sessions of the program will be qualified to do advanced work in the field of Chinese studies in their freshman year of college. Applicants must be able to provide evidence of outstanding performance in language study, or of linguistic aptitude.

For further information, applicants should consult their principal or guidance counselors.

In a brief discussion, it was noted that the streets had been listed by a special committee established for the purpose, is headed by Selectman William Stewart.

Members searched out old records and talked with old residents, to determine whether the streets have actually been used by the general public. Mr. O'Brien explained that if the general public not just the property owners as delivery men, had used the roads 50 years or more, it becomes dedicated to public use under the statutes.

The advantage of having the streets accepted, he said, is to place something in the record now, which will be there whenever the status of a street is questioned. He explained that there had been studies along the same lines twice in the late 1800's, and that it had been done again early in the 1900's.

The town, a few years ago, asked the Legislature to give its permission for the acceptance of some streets. But Mr. O'Brien said this referred to streets that had been improperly accepted by town meetings between certain dates, and does not apply to the streets listed now.

Sanitation Course For Food Handlers

Another "special" will begin when the course in "Food Service Sanitation" gets underway at the Essex County Agricultural School in Hathorne Jan. 15 at 7 p.m. This six-session course for managers and owners of food establishments is jointly sponsored by the Boards of Health in Essex County, the Agricultural School and the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. It will be held on six consecutive Mondays from Jan. 15 through Feb. 19.

In announcing this worthwhile training opportunity Robert A. Walsh, chairman of the Andover Board of Health, said "This course will serve to acquaint managers and owners with new developments and the latest techniques in food handling practices. It will assist them in understanding how important they are in preventing food-borne disease outbreaks; and will help them to maintain high standards of service to their consumer public."

All those interested are requested to contact Health Agent Elizabeth Nadeau at the Board of Health office, where application forms are available. Certificates for display will be awarded upon successful completion of the program.

Local Representatives Appointed By Curtiss

Representatives William Longworth of Methuen and Arthur Williams of Andover are two of 33 Republican members of the Massachusetts House of Representatives who have been appointed by Rep. Sidney Q. Curtiss of Sheffield, Republican floor leader, as the GOP leadership representatives on their respective legislative committees.

The legislators delegated to these assignments are expected, Curtiss stated, to report to the party leadership on all bills before their committees. Longworth will report on bills referred to the Committee on Highways and Motor Vehicles, and Williams on bills referred to Taxation.

"These appointments are most important because it is essential to advise the party leaders concerning possible controversial legislation before it reaches the floor of the House," Curtiss announced. "In the case of bills that are either controversial, or that require explanation, it will be helpful to our membership if the floor leader and members of the calendar committee have advance knowledge of the problems facing the legislative committees."

Longworth has been a member of the House since 1949 and has served on the committee on Highways since 1957. Williams is serving his third term in the House and has been a member of the committee on Taxation since 1959.

The entire debate revolves around the competition factor. Dr. Meyers wanted that decided, others on the Board were interested in trying to require the Cinema Classics group to reach financial agreement with Mr. Resnik, as long as there are relatively few dollars involved.

It was reported that a six-part series is planned by the group, which drew its audience at least 80 percent from Andover.

It was also stated by Mrs. Reta Buchanan that the organization has no funds, and thus fears to get too deeply into debt in its arrangements with Mr. Resnik.

It had previously been explained that if the group is successful in its venture, any surplus will be given to the Andover Recreation Council to support its activities and the evening classes it runs.

The Classics group was told by the School Committee to try arranging the showing of films at the Playhouse.

It was reported Tuesday night, however, that the group and Mr. Resnik could not reach agreement on a price, although they were "fairly close".

Although Dr. Milton J. Meyers, chairman, urged the Committee to decide the question "Can the schools be used to show films under such auspices?", there was no immediate action.

Member Robert McIntyre moved for the delay of two weeks, and William A. Doherty seconded the motion. John S. Sullivan added his vote, resulting in tabling the subject.

Brimer, Mr. Finger, Burton S. Flagg, John M. Kemper, Charles C. Kimball, Arthur W. Reynolds, Horace N. Stevens Jr. and Mr. Sutton.

A meeting of the Young Married Couples Club was held in the Ballard Vale United Church vestry Saturday evening.

Following the business meeting, movies were shown: "Sports Events and News of 1961".

Refreshments were served by the Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Minnigh, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. James McLeod.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. William Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. George Nason, Mr. and Mrs. James McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and the Rev. and Mrs. Minnigh.

The following members of the group attended the Ice Follies in Boston last Thursday evening: Mr. and Mrs. William Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. George Nason and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson.

Sullivan Suggests Amending Article

In response to a Townsman editorial last week, School Committeeman John S. Sullivan has proposed that the Committee's article dealing with the recreational area behind the High School be amended.

He proposes that the town manager, Finance Committee and School Committee be required to give approval before any funds are spent.

The article calls for the appropriation of $28,000 for rough grading and drainage, to which will be added the $22,000 appropriated last year but not used.

Sullivan suggests that the amendment will thus protect the town against duplication of effort and facilities, because the other town boards can be certain that the recreational plan meets their needs as much as possible.

In the editorial, the Townsman suggested that public requirements be considered fully, as well as the school's needs, before final plans are made and action taken. This might prevent duplicating some facilities at a later date, the editorial commented.

Mr. Sullivan thought that the amendment would allow prompt passage of the article, while assuring the voters that all recreation requirements will be considered before actual work begins. To delay action on the article for further study, he believed, would only result in a year's loss of time.

Donated Blood For Emergency

Twelve pints of blood were rushed to the Children's Hospital in Boston from last Wednesday's Red Cross bloodmobile at Raytheon, for use in an immediate open heart operation on an eight-year-old child.

The men at Raytheon who gave the needed type of blood were James Davidson, Edward Clark, Robert Dane, Paul Croteau, William E. Knowles, Joseph J. Peri, Anthony S. D. Dio, Thomas W. Ryan, John J. Flournoy, Russell Boyd, Warren K. Cooper and Charles Bell. Two pints of a relatively rare type of blood were also sent directly to the Lawrence General Hospital in answer to an emergency call.

Mrs. William N. Perry, chairman of the Red Cross blood program, reported that 417 pints of blood were collected from employees of Raytheon. One of them, Donald Grant, became eligible for his five-gallon pin after donating his 40th pint of blood. Sixty-seven volunteers of the Andover chapter gave a total of 4 hours of time at this two-day bloodmobile visit.

Mrs. Perry was enthusiastic about the success of the blood program at Raytheon. She said that whenever the Red Cross is in the plant, the management does its utmost to help in every way, giving their time, money and willing cooperation to the Andover Red Cross volunteers and the Boston bloodmobile unit.

HIGHWAY ROADSIDE REST AREAS - These canopied maps and information signs have been ordered placed in Massachusetts highway roadside rest areas as a convenience to the driving public by DPW Commissioner Jack P. Ricciardi, who also has moved to have the areas illuminated at night. Plans also are being made for telephone service in emergencies. The plans for the simple, inexpensive, yet attractive signs were made by DPW artist Gene DiRado.

afterdark accidents resulting from too-tired operators.

In still another move, Ricciardi, has obtained the cooperation of the New England Tel. and Tel. Co. to build "test" pay phone booths as an experiment so drivers needing assistance in isolated areas might reach communications more handily.

The canopied "booth-type" signs were designed by DPW artist Gene DiRado and will contain a "blow-up" of the state and connecting highway systems, together with other important information for the convenience of motorists.

"It is my thinking that we can get a lot more use out of these roadside rest areas," Ricciardi said. "In addition to the signs, we should provide lighting because many drivers are afraid to pull into the dark areas at night and that is the time when they are most needed."

"This is a beginning. We have plans under study for marking such rest areas on state maps, if that is feasible. We are also considering them as a site for distress signals.

"We do not plan to go overboard in spending money unnecessarily in this project, but utilizing the talent, materials and manpower we have right within the Department, we can make some big improvements," the DPW head added.

Couples Club Will Hear Greenough

The South Church Couples Club will hold a covered dish supper Saturday at 6:30, with Mr. and Mrs. Winston Blake in charge.

Following the meal, Harold E. Goodnough will be presented as the guest speaker. He served for many years as a scout for the old Boston Braves, and moved to Milwaukee with the team in 1953.

His topic will be "Spiritual and Human Values in Athletics and Athletes". Mr. and Mrs. Lucius P. Jones are in charge of the entertainment for the evening.

Jaycees To Offer Song Fest

The Andover Junior Chamber of Commerce will present a radio station's "Sing Along" program - an old-fashioned songfest in Memorial Auditorium Jan. 12.

The 8 o'clock affair will produce funds for the scholarship fund. Jess Cain, Leo Egan and Leo Wilson will be present to lead the "Sing Along". Charles H. Weston Jr., 38 York st., is chairman of the affair and may be contacted for tickets, as may President Gerald Silverman, 56 Duffon st.

SCOUT TROOP PARTY

Brownie Scout Troops 75 and 77 met in the West Parish Church vestry Monday afternoon at 3 p.m. and enjoyed a delayed Christmas Party. Games were enjoyed and gifts were received.

Refreshments were served under the leadership of Mrs. L. Lyman and Mrs. Harold McGrath.

The Misses Dorothy and Cynthia Lawrence of San Francisco, Cal., spent the holidays with their mother, Mrs. Hazel Lawrence of family of Clark rd., Ballardvale.

MOTHERS MARCH IS JAN. 31

of medical, economic and social problems caused by crippling diseases.

With a means at hand for complete victory over polio, The National Foundation is now turning its vast strength in the fields of research, professional education and patient care, made possible by volunteers throughout the country, to the conquest of the mysteries of birth defects and arthritis. Mr. Dodd has stressed that as the National Foundation pushes forward in this field, the picture today is somewhat like that of polio 20 years ago. He states at present there is no actual knowledge as to the cause or preventions, or cures, of birth defects or arthritis, nor are there enough proper facilities or information for diagnosis or treatment of these patients.

The Precinct captains for the Mothers' March throughout Andover are as follows:

Precinct 1 - Mrs. Phillip Ryder, Mrs. Edward Murphy and Mrs. Donald Bacon; precinct 2 - Mrs. John Birdsall; precinct 3 - Mrs. Ralph Wirtz; precinct 4 - Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. J. D. Ledbetter; precinct 5 - Mrs. Charles Bentley; precinct 6 - Mrs. Sidney Zussman and Mrs. G. Gordon White.

Mr. Dodd has requested that anyone interested in helping in the Mothers' March contact him or one of the precinct captains. He also added there will again this year be drawings for donated prizes for all local workers.

Wants To Help Rt. 495 Victims

Some residents of Shawsheen and West Andover, who are still having trouble with the state Department of Public Works over land takings, may be aided by the town.

Selectman William Stewart, terming the situation a disgrace, has suggested that case histories be obtained and forwarded to Gov. John A. Volpe, so that the governor will know what the residents have had to go through.

Mr. Stewart noted that some residents are receiving final eviction notices, but have not had an offer for their property. They must seek temporary shelter, he explained, because they don't even know how much money they will have available to purchase new homes.

The Board agreed with the selectman that the situation is very difficult for the residents, and were quick to lend their support to the proposal that case histories be compiled.

In closing the discussion, Mr. Stewart stated "It's a crime the way they have treated some of these people. It's atrocious".

Mitchell Johnson, 59 Central st., left property valued at more than $100,000 when he died Nov. 11, 1961, according to letters of administration allowed on his estate by the Probate Court.

Little Stories about Great Hymns Hark, Hark, My Soul!

Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wavebeat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night!

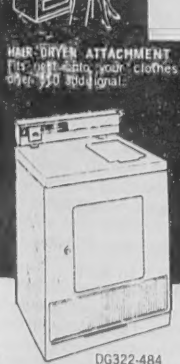

Every Sunday, in hundreds of Protestant congregations, choirs and members sing this glorious old hymn of Frederick Faber, usually unaware that its author was of the Catholic faith. Faber wrote some 150 hymns in a successful attempt to expand the limited number of English hymns for the Catholic laity. "Faith of Our Fathers" is another that has gained wide popularity with Protestants as well.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

When The Chips Are Down

As this editorial is being written, necessarily some days before publication, there are no candidates for the School Committee other than the two incumbents.

It is hard to believe that those persons in our town who have been so critical of the Committee will now ignore their responsibility to present candidates for the office.

We can all recall the strident debates of the past 18 months or longer, and the many harsh comments heard about actions of the Committee. Most of us took for granted the idea that, come election, those who disagree with the Committee would support two candidates whose views they prefer.

By doing so, the voters would be provided with a clear-cut choice. They could support the incumbents, and thereby their policies, or they could reject the incumbents and thus refute their actions as Committee members.

We are not taking an editorial position for, or against, the two candidates for re-election. Rather, it seems to us that the voters will be deprived of their rights as voters if they are not given a chance to make a judgment at this election.

If the incumbents are unopposed, then they and many others are justified in thinking that their policy decisions have been approved by the citizens nearly unanimously. Yet we know that the criticism of the Committee has come from many areas of town and thus indicates considerable discontent.

Those who disapprove of the decisions made by the Committee have the responsibility to come forward and support candidates of similar thought.

Then, and only then, can the voters arrive at a sensible decision.

And unless we can get such an endorsement or rejection of the Committee's policies, we'll be in for another year of bickering, another 12 months of criticism without responsibility.

This we do not believe is in the best interests of the town.

Old-fashioned Town Meeting

The experiment planned this year for town meeting — an all-day affair with luncheon in the cafeteria — should be interesting indeed.

It is planned now to have the meeting continue throughout the day — allowing voters to leave the auditorium for their lunch over a period of time. There will be no adjournment, as it is now scheduled, but routine items will be taken up so that voters will not have to miss the more vital articles.

If this plan works, by bringing a larger crowd to town meeting, it will have been worth the considerable effort expended by members of the cafeteria staff, who will cater the luncheon. For it is vital to draw a sizeable percentage of the voters to the meeting.

We're enthusiastic about the possibilities.

Check And Double Check

We heartily endorse School Committeeman John Sullivan's proposal concerning the recreation area behind the High School:

He believes that the town manager, Finance Committee and School Committee should share the responsibility of approving the plans before money is spent.

In an editorial last week, the Townsman suggested that all municipal agencies should be involved in the recreation plans, to avoid costly duplication of facilities and effort at a later date. The expenditure of an estimated $200,000 at the High School, over a period of a few years, should provide as much public recreation, in addition to the school requirements, as is possible.

Mr. Sullivan suggests that the other interested town boards and officers by required, by vote of town meeting, to put their stamp of approval on the plans first.

Thus, he states, the town meeting can act in March on the first step of the plan, with the knowledge that agreement on the plan must be reached. If this is not done, and further study is suggested, another year could go by before starting on the project.

Providing the amendment is made and accepted at town meeting, it seems logical to act favorably on the School Committee's request for funds for the rough grading and drainage.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — January, 1912

Mrs. Louis A. Dane has been entertaining her cousin, Miss Carter of North Wilmington, this week.

Charles W. Clark, who for several years has been a member of the School Committee and who now serves as chairman, has announced he will not be a candidate for re-election this March.

Thomas Kyle of this town has entered the employ of the Uswoco Mills, of the U. S. Worsted Co. in Lawrence.

For the second consecutive year, Representative Harry M. Eames has had the honor of calling to order the new House of Representatives, when it opened its new legislative session last Wednesday.

Among those on the first honor roll at Phillips Academy for the fall term were Arthur Burr Parling, Phillips G. Morrison and Frederick C. Wilson. On the second honor roll were Clarence Auty, James W. Feeney, Saxton W. Fletcher and Frank K. Hardy.

The local mills changed their schedules Monday to comply with the new 54-hour law for women and minors.

Arthur T. Boutwell was elected clerk, Frederic S. Boutwell, treasurer and Frank H. Hardy, auditor, at the annual meeting of the West Parish Church held Wednesday.

Albert W. Lowe has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election next March. He has been a member of the School Committee.

25 Years Ago — January, 1937

The lot at the corner of Lowell and North Main sts., so long the subject of controversy and zoning disputes, is destined to become a public park. Members of the family of William M. Wood state that they have acquired the lot and will deed it to the town for perpetual use as a park, in Mr. Wood's memory. The lot has been the subject of a legal dispute that went to the state Supreme Court, and resulted indirectly in adoption of the town's zoning by-laws.

Vital statistics for last year indicate that Andover is slipping. The number of deaths recorded exceeded the births.

The race for tree warden already promises to be hotly contested, but only one candidate has as yet said he will run. Ralph Bailey of Porter rd. has announced himself as a candidate, but it is expected that Thomas Taylor will be a candidate. Nothing has been heard as yet from Ralph Berry, the former tree warden or James Buss.

The School Committee wound up the year with an overdraft of $2,138, despite a transfer of $887 from the Finance Committee. The town's emergency funds were depleted during the year and there was no more money available to meet the Committee's needs.

John McCormack, the noted tenor, will present a concert at Phillips Academy Tuesday evening. This is the first American concert tour for the well-known singer.

Mrs. Charlotte F. Carter has been installed as worthy grand matron, Order of the Eastern Star.

10 Years Ago — January, 1952

The year just ended was a banner one for building, with all previous records exceeded. The value of new construction has been placed at $2,982,276, somewhat greater than the previous record year of 1950.

A goal of $8,500 has been set in the financial campaign of the Visiting Nurse Association. Irving J. Whitcomb is president of the organization.

Many town officers will seek re-election in March. Only three have indicated they will not run again — John H. Kelley of the Board of Public Works, Katherine A. Baldwin, a School Committee member and Sidney P. White, a member of the Board of Public Works. The latter will be a candidate for re-election as selectman and assessor, however.

The Board of Trade will discuss parking at its next meeting, with Selectman Roy A. Hardy planning to bring a plan for off street parking before the merchants. It is believed that this may solve the parking problems faced by the retailers.

The United States Olympic hockey team will play at Phillips Academy Sunday night, just a week before the team embarks for Oslo, Norway, for the Olympic games themselves. The team will face competition from the Northeastern Sextet. This is one of the many benefit games played by the team to raise funds to meet their expenses.

Coming Events

JANUARY

- 11 Movie program for Andover boys and girls, 3:35 p.m.
- 15 Andover Civil War Round-table, 7:45 p.m.
- 17 Robins group of Littlest Listeners, 10 a.m. Films for mothers at the same hour.
- 18 Story hour — "Elephants", 3:35 p.m. Ballardvale Littlest Listeners, 10 a.m.
- 19 Travel talk, open to the public, 8 p.m.

Littlest Listeners

While the Robins group of Littlest Listeners enjoy the usual story hour on Wednesday morning, Jan. 17, mothers will see a twenty-three minute film on child development, "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine." This is a study of child behavior at these two age levels with suggestions of how parents may deal constructively with problems which these ages present. Any mother in the community who wishes may attend the morning films planned for mothers of Littlest Listeners. The Cardinal group mothers will see this same film on the following Wednesday.

Ballardvale little people will have their second program of the new year Thursday morning, Jan. 18, at 10 o'clock, in the branch room.

Movies for Boys And Girls

Instead of a story hour at the library Thursday afternoon, Jan. 11, there will be a program of two very good movies for all boys and girls, to be shown at the usual hour of 3:35 p.m. "The Camel Who Took A Walk" is very short, and is made from the popular children's book of the same title. "White Mane", the second film, runs for about forty minutes. It is the story of a young boy's friendship with a proud, wild stallion. All who love horses should find this a thrilling movie. No tickets are required.

Movies Available

The following films are available without charge to groups in the community for the dates indicated, and may be borrowed at the Memorial Hall Library: until Jan. 13, Olympic Rain Forest, color, 11 minutes — this explains the heaviest rainfall in the United States, also the role of rotting logs, lichens, mosses and animals in the life cycle of the forest; for the same period, "On Such A Night", color, 35 minutes, an American witnesses a London performance of "The Marriage of Figaro"; and "Toward Emotional Maturity", 11 minutes, a film to help adolescents understand and control their emotions, with an eighteen year old girl facing a decision deeply involving her feelings for both her parents and a boy; also on hand until Jan. 13 are "The Camel Who Took A Walk", 6 minutes, "Village Of Switzerland" color, 16 minutes, "African Cousins", color, 15 minutes and "White Mane", a 10 minute film about a boy and a wild horse. From Jan. 15 to 20, there will be another film of interest to young people, "How Much Affection?", a 20 minute drama which sets the stage for constructive and frank discussion of questions of vital interest to young people today who are "going steady." From Jan. 15-27, there are three films, "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine", 23 minutes on child development, "Steps Of The Ballet", 25 minutes, and "The High Wall", 32 minutes. This last is an analysis of the background that fosters anti-social attitudes, for those interested in the real emotional attitudes behind intolerance.

For those wishing to make use of the library's films, it is suggested that they contact the library well in advance of the date selected for showing.

Elephants, Anyone?

If you are one of those who enjoy stories about elephants, you will want to hear the story hour on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 18, at 3:35 o'clock. Among the tales to be told are "How The Elephant Got His Trunk", "Toomool Of The Elephants" and "Mr. Kipling Elephant." All boys and girls are welcome.

Travel Talk

There will be a travel talk at the Memorial Hall Library on Friday evening, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock. Mr. P. W. Moody will show his colored slides taken on a recent trip abroad, in a talk "Southern European Tour". All who have ever attended one of the library's talks by friends who have travelled and taken shots of the highlights of their trip will recall how entertaining and instructive an hour it was. All are most cordially invited, so save that evening and bring along your friends.

UNITED CHURCH

GUILD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Ballardvale United Church will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 18. The new officers will be installed at that time.

WARNS AGAINST BUILDING SHELTERS TOO QUICKLY

The American Association of School Administrators, in a long, detailed commentary on the problems associated with fallout shelters in schools, has urged School Committees not to take precipitate action.

The communication, read at Tuesday night's meeting, pointed out that a good plan for such facilities must first be devised, and warned local Committees about being stampeded into action before planning can be accomplished.

CO-OPERATORS -
Are Your Pink Slips Showing?

Zillions of pink slips are being taken out of drawers and tabulated this week. Why?

Because that is how a consumers' cooperative works.
Any CASH surplus at the end of the year's business is returned to the member-patrons in proportion to their purchases as CASH. The more you buy, the more CASH you save. It's as simple as that!

Pink slips for 1961 are now due. We expect over a million dollars' worth. Our 1961 surplus, divided into the pink-slip total, will give us the percent of CASH refund for 1961.

Who is eligible for this CASH windfall? Two kinds of CO-OP shoppers: all present CO-OP members and all 1961 shoppers who become members either by using their refund equity toward a share of stock or by buying a share outright for $5. All shares pay a 5% CASH dividends, too.

• Some people save green stamps but -

• Smart people save green backs!

Theatre - Circus Prints On Exhibit

An exhibit of theatre and circus prints, from the George E. Gallery, is at the John E. Gallery at Abbot Academy. The group of lithographs, etchings, aquatints, and woodcuts, both color and black-and-white, will be on display during January. Artists of France, Italy, Spain, and the United States approach the theatrical scene with various tastes. Rouault is noted for his compassion with mankind in "Le Cirque de l'Etoile Filante" series while most of the other French print-makers have a sense of participation in the action of their themes. There are vivacious and spirited displays by Dery, Matisse, Picasso, Toulouse-Lautrec and Wagner among others, and Brancion, Clair, Cabet, Carzou, Lurcat, Dayez, Michel among the younger. American artists are more to look at these subjects as symbols of their philosophic or psychological problems - Calapai, Mead, Tatterfield and Clare Romano are represented. Arthur Heintzelman and Fritz Brod take rather French attitude. In the Italian group Massimo Campigli and Marino Marini show the influence of early Roman art used by them with spirited playfulness. Gino Severini's lithographs remind that he was one of the founders of the futurist movement and a leading figure in cubism. Maccari shows a whimsical approach, and all of the Italians, like Mirko, Gino, Loredo, Marongiu and Vecchi contribute artistically satisfying and subjectively attractive work. The balance of the selection, which is represented by Lagar, Clave, the Mexican school, Amaro and Xochitlotzin, England by MacBryde, and Belgium by Verge-Gerrard, and Lithuania by Maccari complete the exhibit of more than forty prints in

Theatre - Circus Prints On Exhibit

An exhibit of theatre and circus prints, from the George Binet Gallery, is at the John Esther Gallery at Abbot Academy. The group of lithographs, etchings, aquatints, and woodcuts, both in color and black-and-white, will be on display during January.

Artists of France, Italy, Spain and the United States approach this theatrical scene with various interests. Rouault is noted for his compassion with mankind in his "Cirque de l'Etoile Filante" series while most of the other French print-makers have a sense of participation in the action and few of their themes. There is a vicious and spirited display by Dufy, Matisse, Picasso, Toulouse-Lautrec and Wagner among the older, and Blanchon, Clairin, Cochet, Carzou, Lurcat, Dayez and Michel among the younger.

American artists are more apt to look at these subjects as symbols of their philosophic or psychological problems - Calapai, Mead, Tattersfield and Clare Romano are thus represented. Arthur Heintzelman and Fritz Brod take rather the French attitude.

The Italian group Massimo Campigli and Marino Marini show the influence of early Roman art used by them with spirited playfulness. Gino Severini's lithographs remind that he was one of the founders of the futurist movement and a leading figure in cubism. Maccari shows a whimsical approach, and all other Italians, like Mirko, Gnoli, Loffredo, Marongiu and Vecchia contribute artistically satisfying and subjectively attractive works.

The balance of the selection, with Spain represented by Lagar and Clave, the Mexican school by Amaro and Xochitlotzin, England by MacBryde, and Belgium by Verge-Serrat, and Lithuania by Kaulas complete the exhibition of more than forty prints in the various media.

All the artists included in the exhibition are contemporaries or near-contemporaries. An exception is being made for this show in including a charming circus subject by the Spanish master, Francisco Goya, in view of the recently revived great interest for his works.

The John-Esther Gallery is open to the public Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 4.

Local Resident
Heads New Firm

The Eastern Marketing Force of CBS Electronics, former Division of Columbia Broadcasting System Inc., has announced the formation of a new marketing company.

L. M. Murchison, previously national accounts manager with CBS Electronics, stated that the new Corporation, Murchison Marketing Associates Inc., was organized to perform many of the management services required by small and medium sized electronic companies. Initially the organization will operate as marketing representatives and consultants throughout the East for such companies as IT&T on imported components, Kearfott Semiconductor Corporation, Fanon Transistor Corporation and United Components. Negotiations are presently underway with several other well-known electronic firms and coverage may be extended in the immediate future on a National Basis.

Mr. Murchison is a local resident, residing at 5 William st. with his wife and three children.

In his announcement, Mr. Murchison, president of the new firm, cited the highly competitive situation smaller electronic firms face today and referred to the shake-out underway in the Electronics Industry. He said that if smaller firms were to survive and compete with the larger companies they must find ways to minimize overhead and still avail themselves of the expert marketing and management services large manufacturers can afford. These services include marketing representation, survey and analysis, product planning, advertising, executive recruitment, purchasing and finance. MMA will eventually offer all of these services to the electronics industry. "This will give maximum talent at minimum expense," he said.

Shopping Here
Lauded By Customer

One Andover Christmas shopper has expressed the thoughts of many others, in a note addressed to the Dame Shop.

"I would like to express my thanks to you at the Dame Shop for the United States Savings Bond, given to me at Christmas. The fact that so many merchants in town participated in spreading such 'good will' should certainly make us aware of the fact that there is much to be said about shopping in our own home town."

The note was signed by Etta Chadwick, one of the winners in the Savings Bond contest sponsored by the merchants during the weeks prior to the holidays.

Pike School Fund At $330,000

The Pike School development fund has reached $330,000, according to a report from Dr. Milton J. Meyers, campaign chairman.

The fund is expected to reach an eventual $750,000, to meet the expenses of relocating the school. Board Chairman A. L. Bolton Jr. has announced that architectural planning is going forward smoothly, and that the school expects to open its doors at the relocated site in September of 1963. The campaign opened last September and some 90 solicitors are now calling on potential donors.

Couples Club Will See Ski Movies

A covered-dish supper will be served by the Free Church Couples' Club Friday, Jan. 12, at 7 p.m.

The program for the evening will be ski movies, presented by Dr. Warren Sandberg. Two films will be shown. The first is titled "Little Skier, Big Day" and is the adventures of a six-year-old who skied to school in the mountains of Colorado. Views of the snow plains, mountain fir and the resort at Aspen provide the setting. The second film is "Sky Way Story", filmed in Chile by the Dartmouth Ski League, in which two skiers clock themselves at more than 100 miles per hour. Dr. Sandberg will present a brief commentary in connection with the films.

College Boards At High School

The College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test, Achievement Test, and Writing Sample will be given at Andover High School this Saturday, Jan. 13, at 8:30 a.m.

William J. Igoe, director of guidance for Andover Public Schools, is supervisor for this testing center.

Ninety-five students are registered for the testing program to be held Saturday. The next College Board Testing session to be held at Andover High will be Saturday, March 3.

The final testing session will be held May 19.

Drivers' Code For High School Drivers

There are now 62 students at Andover High School who are driving to and from school and using the schools parking lot.

These students have been given a simple code of regulations for safety and welfare, which they are expected to carry out. The program has been approved by the Andover Police Department, which promises its full cooperation in aiding the high school to enforce it.

An Andover High sticker is given to all students who participate in this program. The sticker may be revoked by the school when a student has violated the code.

Town Lauded For Management

The town has been notified that it has earned a "substantial experience credit" in its workmen's compensation rating.

Through Smart and Flagg, which handles that portion of the town's insurance, Town Manager Thomas E. Duff has been informed that the town's rating is 31 percent. And commented the firm: This "reflects credit on the management of the town's operations".

Jaycees Will Celebrate Week

Jaycee Week, the annual anniversary observance of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, starts Jan. 21 in Andover, Gerald Silverman, local Jaycee president has announced.

The highlight of the week's events will be the presentation of a Distinguished Service Award to Andover's outstanding man who has made an outstanding contribution to the community. The DSA winner will be named at the quarterly dinner meeting, to be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 24, at Fieldstones Restaurant.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Eugene A. Bernardin Jr., chairman of the Board of Selectmen. Chairman of the meeting is Howard Ponty, first vice president. Joel Labell heads the committee for selecting the Award winner. All local organizations have been invited to submit names of candidates.

Received Contract For School Report

Bids on printing the School Department report were opened at the Tuesday night meeting, and the contract was awarded to the Town Printing Co. on its low bid.

The bids were: Town Printing Co., $6.70 a page; Eagle-Tribune Job Printing, $6.75 a page; Lexington Press, $9.56 a page.

All of the bids called for extra compensation for engravings, according to the specifications. There will be approximately 80 pages in the report, of which some 1,200 copies are ordered.

Residents Supporting Health Association

Andover residents are supporting the annual Christmas Seal campaign somewhat more generously than they did a year ago, according to the Essex County Health Association.

To date, residents have given $3,822.30 as compared to $3,400 last year. The Association continues its campaign for funds, as this is the only source of revenue available to the organization.

Its primary function is the continuation of a program designed to help control and eradicate tuberculosis.

Cafeteria Staff To Cater Lunch

Sandwiches, coffee and desert will be the food menu at town meeting March 10, when voters are considering another municipal menu of budgets and special articles.

The Selectmen have agreed to a proposal from the school cafeteria personnel to cater the luncheon in the school cafeteria. Some 300 persons can be seated at one time in the room, and the meal will continue from 11 a.m. through 2 p.m., so that all of those at the session can eat.

The meeting will start at 9:30 a.m.

The Selectmen also have agreed that any deficit will be made up by the town, so that the cafeteria employees will not be responsible if there are too few lunch-minded voters.

The noon-time meal was arranged as a method of attracting more voters to the meeting, and to get the warrant finished in one day. It is planned to continue the action through the noon hour, allowing voters to go down stairs to the cafeteria as they wish, rather than voting to adjourn, even for a brief period of time.

Dimlich Case To Come Up In Spring

The School Committee's appeal to the state Supreme Court, to reverse the lower court's finding in the Benjamin Dimlich case, probably won't be heard until some time this spring.

Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien, who has acted for the School Committee in the matter, explained that the record of the Superior Court trial is just now being studied by the Superior Court justice who sat on the case. He has the right to delete any portion of the record he wishes, before it is printed for reference to the higher court.

This will be accomplished within the next three weeks or so, according to Atty. O'Brien, and then the final documents will be sent to the printer.

In brief, the Superior Court justice found that Mr. Dimlich had tenure as principal of the Junior High. The town is appealing the decision, contending that Mr. Dimlich did not, in fact, have the required tenure before he was told that he would not be retained in that capacity.

Little Activity In Politics

With the deadline for filing nomination papers approaching — its Jan. 29 — there is practically no interest being shown in the March election.

Only four candidates have publicly announced — one for re-election as Selectman, two for re-election to the School Committee, and one new candidate for Selectman.

Selectman William Stewart, secretary of the Board throughout his three-year term, will be a candidate.

Seeking re-election to the School Committee are Mrs. Reta Buchan and John S. Sullivan.

Moderator Charles G. Hatch has not yet announced his candidacy.

R. Wayne Long of South Main st. is the only new entry on the political scene, as a candidate for Selectman.

The only politically-hot item concerns the probability that the voters will once again decide on fluoridation of the water supply. Gerald Silverman, president of the Jaycees, said he believes action will come soon on the organization's legislative request to have the question printed on the town ballot. A hearing probably will be held in a week or so, he explained, followed by action in the Legislature. He anticipates passage of the bill and a subsequent campaign to get fluoridation approved again.

The absence of interest in the election, and the lack of candidates, have been more of a conversation item in recent days than have the names of any potential candidates for the five positions to be voted upon.

BERNARDIN TO RESIGN AS BOARD CHAIRMAN

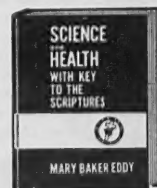

Eugene A. Bernardin Jr., chairman of the Board of Selectmen, will resign that position at the next regular meeting of the Board Jan. 22.

Whoever is named to serve as chairman will thus be able to prepare for town meeting. The chairman presents much of the Board's reasoning on articles appearing in the warrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Albion Johnson of High Plain rd. spent the holiday with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson in Wayland.

Corruption Tax Repeal Urged

"The most powerful ally of corruption is apathy," Elliott Richardson, former United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts, told the Andover Taxpayers' Association at Centennial School Tuesday evening.

"Where apathy exists," stated, "a political power vacuum also exists. This vacuum has to be filled in some way and if decent citizens do not do the job, it will be done by political opportunists who are always ready to exploit political power for their own advantage."

"Corruption eats away at the very foundations of our community," Richardson said. "It is a tax that contributes nothing to the well-being of the community. The corruption tax, though hidden, is just as expensive as many of the legitimate taxes that you pay both your business and private lives."

"You are already fighting the inequalities in our tax structure. Now is the time for you to stand up to this other danger to the community and start helping repeal the corruption tax."
